Ucluelet's Wild Pacific Sailing offers exclusive, tranquil way to discover sea and landscapes

Have you ever wished you and few friends could charter a luxury sailboat out of Ucluelet and cruise peacefully in the nearby sheltered waters of the Barkley Sound and Broken Group Islands archipelago?

Ucluelet's Wild Pacific Sailing Adventures will make that dream a reality with upscale sailing charters catering for up to six people. Relax as you view wildlife, such as whales, sea lions, sea otters, eagles and brown bears, or be more adventurous and learn to sail with owner, Bobby Sherlock, and his crew.

Wild Pacific Sailing offers day sailing trips, sunset tours, and multi-day sailing trips aboard Pegasus, a fully-outfitted Hunter 340. All charters include gourmet meals and refreshments.

"While a variety of itineraries are offered, the tours are highly customizable to clients' requests, adding to their enjoyment, interest and involvement," adds Bobby.

After spending the past few years guiding in local waters, he set up Wild Pacific Sailing to offer an exclusive, tranquil and relaxing way to view West Coast sea and landscapes while travelling in harmony with this pristine, natural environment.

Tours start at $350 for a 3 to 5 hour Sunset Sailing Tour for up to six people. A 5 to 7 hour Day Sailing Tour of the Barkley Sound and Broken Group Islands is $800 for up to six people. Multi-day trips are $1,000 a day for up to 4 people and include all meals. Tours depart from Whiskey Dock in Ucluelet's town centre.

Pro-AM @ Long Beach Golf needs sponsors to raise funds for local high school events

The Wickannish Pro-Am at Long Beach Golf Course is looking for local sponsorship. Proceeds go to the local high school in support of extra-curricular activities, to help teams buy supplies and offset the cost of transportation for sports competitions and field trips.

Last year, the Wick Inn Pro-Am raised over $21,000 for the local high school; in the past 8 years, more than $90,000 has been raised. Show your support by sponsoring a hole; the cost is $200 and includes signing on the golf course during the event, other acknowledgement. The tournament will be held Friday, September 16th and will be attended by 35 club professionals and an estimated 100 additional golfers. The bottom line is this: the more sponsors we get the more money we can give to the kids at the school.

We are glad that we can count on you for your support of this year's event. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me.

Receipts will be provided.
